

EVENTS Autumn–Winter 2020

- 3 Sept
18.00–19.30
Special Event
Communicating Nature: Promoting a Diverse Society
(Panel discussion for Fellows, Associates and Student Associates only)
- 9 Sept
12.30–13.00
Lunchtime Lecture
The Inside Out of Flies & Why They Matter
Dr Erica McAlister FLS, Natural History Museum, London
- 24 Sept
18.00–19.00
Evening Lecture
Key Land Plant Innovations in Bryophytes
Dr Silvia Pressel FLS, Natural History Museum, London
- 6 Oct
18.00–19.00
Science Policy Lecture 2020 - Natural Capital, Biodiversity & Net Zero: The Foundations of a Green Economy
Professor Dieter Helm CBE
- 7 Oct
12.30–13.00
Lunchtime Lecture
Underwater Photography
Matt Doggett, Marine ecologist and photographer
- 16 Nov
18.30–19.30
Evolution of Passerine Birds (in association with the British Ornithologists' Club)
Professor Jon Fjeldså, Natural History Museum of Denmark
- 26 Nov
18.00–19.00
Evening Lecture
Climate Change, Biodiversity, Ecosystem Services
Dr Nathalie Pettorelli, Zoological Society of London
- 2 Dec
18.00–19.00
Evening Lecture
Founder's Day Lecture 2020 - Gilbert White of Selborne: Poet, Preacher, and Naturalist
Professor Brychan Carey, Northumbria University
- 3 Dec
TBC
Irene Manton Lecture 2020—Metamorphosis: A 300-year Story of Butterflies, Rainforests & Intrepid Women
Dr Eleanor Drinkwater, University of York
- 9 Dec
12.30–13.00
Lunchtime Lecture
Challenges & Opportunities for Caribbean Endemic Bird Conservation
Dr Ellie Devenish-Nelson, University of Edinburgh & Dr Howard Nelson, University of Cambridge
- 16 Dec
18.00–19.00
Evening Lecture
Christmas Lecture 2020 - Learning from the past: How can environmental archives and historical baselines help conservation?
Professor Samuel Turvey, Zoological Society of London

All events will be held virtually using Zoom unless otherwise specified.
Registration is essential through our website or Eventbrite.

Explore & register at www.linnean.org/events