

Proposal form for an Evening Meeting at the Linnean Society of London

- Evening Meetings take place every month in the Meeting Room at the Linnean Society and last 45 minutes.
- On top of admitting new Fellows, Evening Meetings always feature a talk on some aspect on Natural History.
- The society's key topics and themes for Evening Meetings are:
 - Applied
 - Pure
 - Policy
 - History

Proposed speaker:
Major themes & objectives
Name and contact details of principal proposer:
Have you seen this speaker before? If so, please give details of the talk you attended and your experience at the talk.
Why is the meeting timely and relevant to the Society's programme?

Please return this form to: The Linnean Society of London, Burlington House, Piccadilly, London, W1J 0BF or events@linnean.org

The proposal will be evaluated at the next programmes committee meeting which take place in February, June and November.